Hi Lu Ann,

I hired Genesis to DJ at my wedding this past December. My wife and I were marrying out of state (Newport RI) and had to make many of our arrangements remotely. I found Genesis through an Internet service called RIwedding.com. Mike and I never met until the day of the wedding. We communicated strictly through email and telephone. I described for Mike the type of function we had in mind, what we liked and particularly what NOT to play. We also needed a separate system to play music during our ceremony at an adjoining chapel. Nothing was a problem for Genesis. I met with Mike when he arrived to set up at the hotel (almost two hour before the wedding). He was neat, presentable and professional. His equipment was state-of-the-art and clean. Mike worked with the hotel staff to arrange the set-up of both systems and was ready to go before anyone entered the chapel. Mike kept the music a the perfect tempo and volume throughout my event. My guests ranged in age from 30 - 70 and the mix he chose made it enjoyable for all. He handled every request with a smile, including or impromptu karaoke auditions and my desire for him to stay beyond our original contracted time. I don't mean to ramble, however, I have never been so pleasantly surprised by a service hired, sight unseen. I highly recommend Mike for any type of occasion you have. Tell him what you want and he will assuredly satisfy your every need.

Good luck and congratulations to your parents,

Dan Collier

Mike from Genesis emailed me your names for reference purposes. I would like him to perform at my parent's 40th wedding anniversary in April. Any feedback positive or otherwise would be greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for taking the time, I just want everything to go well for my parent's party. My name is Lu Ann Hall and I can be reached at dhall22826@aol.com

Again many thanks Lu Ann
